FIGHT BACK.
JOIN US.

Free, public civil rights event

Th., 1/19/17, 5:30-7:30 p.m.

University of Hawai'i Maui College, Ka Lama 103 with the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) of Hawai'i

SEE YOU IN COURT.

SAFEGUARDING CIVIL RIGHTS IN A NEW ADMINISTRATION:

No matter who is President, the ACLU plays a vital role as an independent watchdog ready to push back against government policies that violate or undermine the Constitution.

We'll discuss: With a new administration heading to the White House, what Trump campaign promises are of concern to the ACLU and its supporters? How can civil libertarians stay informed and engaged?

COMMUNITY CONTROL OF POLICE SURVEILLANCE:

Often deployed by local police in secret, with minimal oversight and little or no public policy to govern its use – where should surveillance stop?

We'll talk about: Is surveillance tech in use by Hawai'i police? What constitutional concerns are raised? What can go wrong when police use "dragnet" data gathering? How can communities limit surveillance technologies used in local policing?

ENDING MASS
INCARCERATION IN HAWAI'I:

The United States is the world's largest jailer. The poor and people of color (including Native Hawaiians) are charged and convicted more often, and with harsher sentences – despite common rates of crime among all races.

We'll cover: Why are so many people caught up in the criminal justice system? What's it like in Hawaii's jails & prisons? Can we reduce prison rates in Hawai'i and keep our communities safe?

Hosted by the ACLU of Hawai'i, the UHMC Human Services Department, & Maui Peace Action

Light refreshments, ADA-accessible. Walk-ins welcome.
